

Two Masters

Jesus wanted to help the disciples learn how to serve God so he shared this story with them.

Once upon a time, a rich man had someone working for him who took care of his money. But this worker was greedy and cheated the rich man so he could get more money for himself. When the rich man found out what the worker had done, it made him very angry. “You are not trustworthy!” the rich man said. “Show me how you took so much of my money! Then, I want you to leave!”

The worker wasn't honest. He tried to serve the rich man and himself.

Jesus said, “My friends, you must always be honest in what you do. Decide what is most important to you, because you can’t serve God and be greedy serving yourself at the same time.”

★ Draw a picture of someone who is important to you. Next, do something to show that person you care.

