

Teaching and Healing

Jesus was in the synagogue. He picked up a scroll and began to read out loud.

Just then a sick man sitting near Jesus began to shake. The sick man shouted at Jesus. "Sh-h-h-!" "Quiet!" "Silence!" the crowd said to the man. The people did not care about the man. But Jesus did.

Jesus stopped his teaching. He wanted the man to be well. "Be still," he said to the sick man. "Be well." The sick man became peaceful and quit shaking.

"What is this?" the people said in amazement. "He even cures the sick!" Because of this event, news of Jesus' power began to spread among the people.

★ What would it be like to have Jesus as your teacher?

